

Advocacy in Teacher and School Leader Education: Partnering to Take Action

2017 NYSATE/NYACTE Annual Fall Conference
Gideon Putnam Resort, Saratoga Springs, NY
October 18-20, 2017
(Preconference: Wednesday, October 18th)

Registration is now open!

CONFERENCE HIGHLIGHTS

Opportunities to Engage with Policy Makers

- ◆ NYS Commissioner MaryEllen Elia
- ◆ Members of the NYS Regents
- ◆ Nadene Davidson, Chair of Advisory Council of State Representatives
- ◆ CAEP Representatives to discuss approaches to Accreditation/Pathways

Opportunities to Learn More about Teacher Education Advocacy and Best Practices

- ◆ Karen DeMoss, Director of the Sustainable Funding Project, Bank Street College
- ◆ Panel of Experts on Clinical Practice: Christine Smith, David Cantaffa, Laura Glass
- ◆ Kim O'Neil, National Board for Professional Teaching Standards

Focus on Teacher Education for Diverse Learners

- ◆ Continued Work in the Current Era of Post-Election Divisions: Presented by a panel of experts who engage in scholarship on a wide range of student identities

PLUS... Presentations from colleagues from around New York state focusing on shaping teacher education policy through critical action, nurturing P-12 partnerships and professional collaborations, accreditation, and best practices in program development.

PRECONFERENCE HIGHLIGHTS: Conversations with representatives of NYSED, the New York State Regents, experts on sustaining clinical practice, and a chance to share feedback on edTPA Handbooks along with other professional development opportunities.

- ★ TO REGISTER for the preconference and conference, go to one of the following websites.

<http://www.nys-ate.org/events/conf.html>

<http://nyacte.org/conference/conferencereg.html>

Note: Registration includes all meals! The deadline for regular registration is October 1st. After that date, a late registration fee of $25 will be added. Information about hotel reservations can be found on the registration page.